Profile

Quantum physicist translating diamond-based NV magnetometry into industrial semiconductor failure analysis and metrology; experienced from fundamental theory through experiment design and lab automation to industry-ready product deployment, with a diverse record of collaboration, research and outreach in quantum technologies.

Timeline — the measurement collapses onto the current role.

Portfolio

Munich · Germany — Jan 2025 – present

Quantum Sensing Expert

QuantumDiamonds GmbH

Diamond quantum sensing for semiconductor failure analysis. IC role; tech R&D projects; system & product dev. Industrial patents filed.

Jülich · Germany — Feb 2024 – Jan 2025

Quantum Physicist

Peter Grünberg Institute, FZ Jülich GmbH

Quantum information with solid-state spins; optimal control. BMBF SPINNING; solid-state quantum processors.

Kaiserslautern · Germany — Mar 2022 – Feb 2024

Postdoctoral Researcher

Biophysics & Quantum Sensing, RPTU

NV optimal control, widefield imaging, charge-state readout; life-science & materials use. QuanTUK course; Nachwuchsring 2023.

Kaiserslautern & Saarbrücken · Germany — Jun 2018 – Mar 2022

Marie Skłodowska-Curie ESR · PhD

RPTU & Universität des Saarlandes

Optimal control for NV sensing; single-NV confocal setup, pulse synthesis. Secondments: Stuttgart · THALES (FR) · Jülich.

Lund · Sweden — Sep 2017 – Mar 2018

Research Assistant

Quantum Information Group, Lund University

Feedback wavefront shaping with LCoS spatial light modulators.

Output log — 2019 – 2026
